Faculty

Our Superintendent

You have made an excellent start in the attempt to become an educated person. You have worked hard and played hard at the various activities in and around school as illustrated in the pages of this yearbook. Now this is all in the past and you must be continually looking to the future and always trying to become better educated. You will have many times of anxiety and uncertainty but an educated person feels at home during these uncertain times because he is able to make the proper adjustments. It is our hope that you have learned to share ideas, to accept criticism, to recognize the judgment of others and to make good, sound judgments of your own even during times of stress and criticism. The ability to do this is a mark of an educated person. Even though you will make many mistakes, it is from these mistakes that you will continue to become educated.

As your education continues, you must have long-range, broad goals with adjustable patterns of procedure. As you reach for your life's goals, you must rely more and more on good, sound judgment rather than memory, because our ever changing society continually brings new challenges which can best be met by reasoning and making decisions based upon this reasoning.

—F. K. McCutchan

Our Principal

Time, patience, and perseverance can gain great victories. Our graduating seniors have used these attributes to advantage and now are at the commencement of a different phase of their lives.

This new phase will demand many of the same success-giving ingredients that have brought the seniors to this stage in their lives. We hope they have learned much and are as well prepared as possible to carry on to a fruitful, productive lifetime of service to themselves, their families, and their country.

May each of you find your fondest dreams attainable.

Art Club

The Art Club, organized by Mr. Immel, art instructor, is a new addition to our school. The club consists of eighteen students who are especially interested in art.

The Art Club's main concern is to do art work for teachers and for school organizations. The club usually handles posters, programs and stage settings for the Thespian productions. Members have designed and made programs for the Christmas Candlelight Service of the Y-Teen Club, for the style show, and for other clubs.

The Art Club has started a small treasury by doing jobs for a few clubs in the community. The money may be used for field trips later in the year.

The officers of the club are Jan Wunderlin and Tom Chaudoin, presidents; Bill Booth secretary; Cheryl Myers, treasurer; Mickey Resler and Mary Newnam, co-ordinators.

Diversified Cooperative Education

This year a new organization joined our school, the Diversified Co-operative Education Club. The students in this program were selected the preceding year by a group consisting of Mr. Hammel, Mr. Johnson, the guidance counselors, and several other members of the faculty.

The club has thirteen members—Jenny Canaday, Dianna Randol, JoAnn Schlosser, Ruth Ann Green, Vickie Osborne, Jennifer Ryan, Glenn Christen, Dick Miller, Harold Locke, Richard Wells, Ron McCormick, Ted Pollard, and Robert Johnson.

The students attend regular classes half a day and in the other half they work in actual commuity businesses. D. C. E. members are positioned throughout the school district and the jobs are widely varied. The students may apply things they have previously learned and also obtain new knowledge.

The club has been in action constantly. The group has attended state conventions and held a paper drive and cake sale. A banquet is also given at the end of the year for all the students and their employers.

Mr. Etzler is the group co-ordinator.

On the following two pages are pictures of D.E.C. students and their employers.

Exploratory teaching is a new course offered to seniors in Angola High School this year, through which students interested in teaching grades kindergarten through eight gain experience and more knowledge of the teaching profession. The work was organized by Roger Etzler, also DCE adviser.

The students enrolled were Kathy Chadwick, Bill Rathburn, Dianna Campbell, Suzy Holtzman, Mary Lou Sprinkle, Kathy Parsell and Cathy Steiner.

For the first six weeks of the semester, the students met daily for text book study and class discussion, made oral and written reports, and heard guest speakers; they also observed classes. After this initial preparation and more observation, the students began actually assisting the teachers. Sometimes they helped with languages, crafts and other kinds of art work.

The teachers over them had periodical contact with Mr. Etzler, discussing the students' work. The exploratory teachers had forms to fill out concerning their work and also continued text book study.

The program is worked out through the F.T.A. Club, of which all exploratory teachers must be members.

These pictures show Kathy Parsell working with a group of kindergarten children taught by Mrs. Rose Clark at Hendry Park School.

Exploratory Teaching

Future Teachers of America

At Open House

The F.T.A. club is an organization which gives its members an opportunity to learn about the teaching field and expose their own abilities and interests related to the teaching profession. The club is also designed to help its members cultivate the qualities of personality, character, and leadership, which are essential in good teachers.

This year the F.T.A. has been active in many areas. In the fall a large group of members attended the area conference at Woodlan, Indiana. Later, girls served as guides at open house. They have also helped teachers grade papers and teach classes.

Officers of the F.T.A. were Kathy Kolb, president; Dave Anspaugh, vice-president; Jean Van Aman, secretary; Kathy Fisher, treasurer; George Shepherd, parliamentarian; and Judy Clancy, historian.

Mrs. Gladys Kile is the F.T.A. faculty adviser.

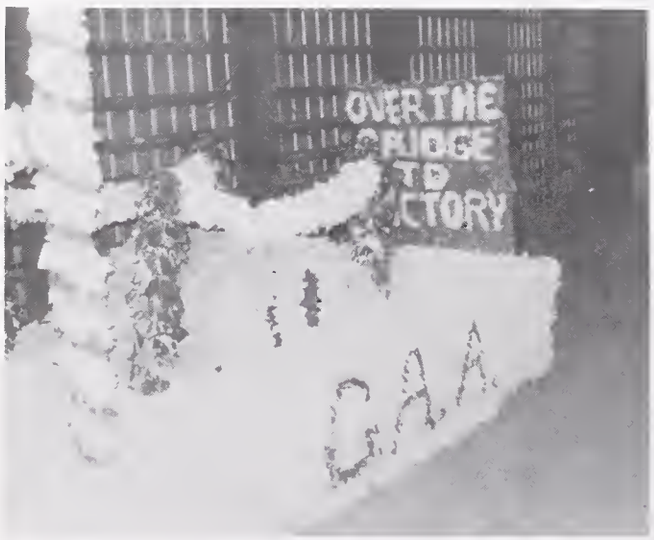
Girls' Athletic Association

The purpose of the Girl's Athletic Association is to increase each girl's interest in various sports and to develop friendship and cooperation among the girls.

The club meets every Monday during the activity period and the girls participate in such sports as volleyball, basketball, dodgeball, and gymnastics.

The G.A.A. campout this year was held in the gym after one of the home football games.

The officers this year were: Nancy Wilder, president; Janice Chard, vice president; Kathy Chadwick, secretary; Jan Morley, treasurer.



Senior Girls' Basketball Team

Girls' Gymnastics Team

A girls' gymnastics team was organized for the first time during this school year. Practice was held every Monday during home room and continued until twelve o'clock. A few dedicated girls came quite often in the mornings before school.

The team did not compete with other schools, but they participated in the annual physical education show in May and in an A.A.U. meet in Indianapolis. Awards were given by the club to members with outstanding attendance records and extra credits.

Officers of the club are president, Bobbie Jo Leininger; vice president, Suzy Fulton; secretary-treasurer, Shirley Williams.

Hi-Y

The Angola Hi-Y, a branch of the Young Men's Christian Association, was formed in 1921. It is also a member of both state and national organizations. The purpose of the club is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character. The club had 82 members this year.

Hi-Y members helped direct the parking of cars this year at football games as a school service project. Jim Hornbacker, chairman of the School Service Committee, was in charge; and the club received a special note of appreciation and thanks from Assistant Principal Harry Kelley for this project. The club also helped solicit money for the United Fund. The boys picked up Christmas trees for the Lutheran Church's annual "Burning of the Greens" ceremony as a community service project. Dave Anspaugh, chairman of Community Service, was in charge of this project. The club sponsored a candy sale for world service, a project headed by Steve Crooks, World Service chairman.

Superintendent F. K. McCutchan, was the guest speaker at this year's candlelight induction of new members, held at Hendry Park Gym. Other speakers during the year were Dr. Kissinger; Mr. Haughey, varsity basketball coach; Mr. Doba, varsity football coach; Willis K. Batchelet, State senator; Eugene McCarty, local conservation officer; and Tom Hanselman, county sheriff. A film on the work of the "Building for Brotherhood" project, for which the money for world service was given, was also shown.

United Fund Collection

The club participated in the Youth and Government Program for the second year of its existence. Ten members of the club and the two faculty advisors, Mr. Wearly and Mr. Bowers, attended the prelegislative assembly at Manchester College. The purpose of the program was to acquaint the delegates with the legislative processes and present some basic guidelines for the Model Legislature to be held in Indianapolis in the statehouse. The state was divided into three sections, and each section held its own

Pre-legislative assembly and nominated various officers to run for election in the Model Legislature. At the Pre-legislative assembly, Dave Goodwin ran for the office of bill co-ordinator; and Phil Smathers, State Hi-Y chaplain, led the opening devotions, the Legislators' Pledge, and closing prayer. Bob Crain and Phil Meyers were elected from the club to represent it in the Model Legislature as a Senator and Representative respectively.

Dave Goodwin also ran for office in the Pre-legislative assembly and acted as chairman of one of the standing committees. Each club presented to the model legislative conference a proposed bill on some field such as transportation, public health and safety, or taxation and finance. The purpose of the Youth and Goverment Program is to provide young men and women with the opportunity to better understand the moral and political leadership required by our American democratic process.

This year's officers were: Phil Smathers, president; Bob Crain, vice-president; Kim Tubergen, secretary; Steve Wheeler, treasurer; Mark Allion, chaplain; and Bill Bryan, sergeant-at-arms.

chairman; Richie Call, athletic chairman; and Phil Meyers attended Officers' Training camp at Delphi, Indiana. Here the opportunity is provided for anyone who so desires to run for a state office. The Angola Hi-Y club has been quite active in the past few years in presenting several candidates and this year was no exception. Phil Meyers, past State vice-president, moved into the office of President, and Phil Smathers was elected State Hi-Y Chaplain.

Phil Meyers also attended the National Hi-Y Council at Northfield, Minnesota, and at this meeting was elected National Hi-Y Chaplain. Phil was also picked as one of five delegates from the State of Indiana to attend the World Youth Conference at Stavanger, Norway, June 25 to July 7. Y.M.C.A. organizations from all over the world will be represented. The group will tour Northern and Central Europe.

Other activities during the year included the Thanksgiving program arranged by the Worship Committee, headed by Bob VanAuken. The club also sponsored a volleyball tournament with Richard Call, Athletic chairman, in charge.

A Founders Day banquet, at which Don Reap, associate state secretary of the Y.M.C.A. was the speaker, was held April 6. Dave Hanselman, George Shoup, Phil Meyers and Phil Smathers were honored for outstanding achievements in Hi-Y work.

John W. Wearly and Michael Bowers are the faculty advisors.

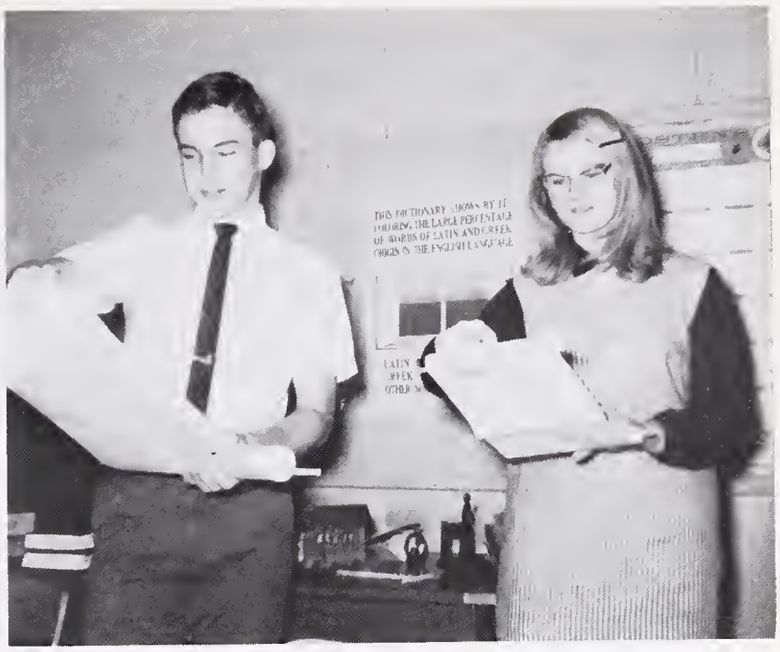
Junior Classical League

Latin word games, skits, and group singing were all included in the programs presented at the meetings of the Junior Classical League this year.

The purpose of the organization is to promote interest in the study of the classics and to show how many of the ancient customs and beliefs have become a part of our present day civilization.

The Angola chapter of J. C. L. was organized in 1953, with Miss Reed as its sponsor. Since then the enrollment has greatly increased, the present enrollment now being 63.

The float entered in the Fall Festival parade featured two football players, Keith Huffman and Robert Wilson dressed in Roman togas battling it out for a victory. Judy Clancy and Sherry Sunday were seated on white wrought iron thrones. The theme of the float was "Veni, Vidi, Vici!" (I came, I saw, I conquered.)



The annual Roman banquet and slave auction made up the spring projects.

Officers for this year were David Putman and Jack Croxton consuls; Ralph Hall and Dick Horny, scribes; Kim Tubergen, questor; Don Hosack, song leader; Dennis Rausch, program chairman; and Mary Lou Sprinkle, chairman of Fall Festival float committee. Mr. Thompson is faculty advisor.

National Thespian Society

The Thespian society is an organization established for the promotion and advancement of dramatic art in secondary schools. Troupe 1264 of Angola High School is composed of students who have earned the required number of points for meritorious work in play production.

Angola's productions this year were "Hobgoblin House," "They Put On A Play," and the final production, a hit musical "Fanny."

The Thespian officers were President, Don Crone; vice president, Jan Thomas; secretary, Ginny Shoup; sergeant-at-arms, Kim Tubergen.

This year the club made a special effort to give all members a chance to show their talents. For every meeting skits were put on by older members and by those seeking membership in the club.

Also this year students were encouraged to take part in the Angola Community Theatre productions. Many students helped behind the scenes while others had the chance to take an active part on the stage.

The Thespian troupe would like to thank their sponsor, Mrs. Chokey, and her assistants, Mrs. Owens and Mrs. McKeever, for their help in making the organization a real success.

"Hobgoblin House"

"Hobgoblin House" was a mystery-comedy presented November 5 and 6, the first Thespian production of the year.

The members of the audience had to hold on to their seats as Miss Priscilla Carter, her nieces and servants moved into a house alleged to be haunted. The house, called "Hobgoblin House", produced many ghostly manifestations including the lost head of Nellie Bronson and a screaming skull. To add to the excitement there was even a homicidal maniac running loose.

The cast included Don Crone, Jan Thomas, Dennie Whitlow, Teresa Rigelman, Stephany Slanina, Ronda Nichols, Linda Sunday, Dick Fee, Dennis Rausch, Phil Rutter and Carl Ransburg.

Mrs. Chokey directed the play with the assistance of Mrs. McKeever.

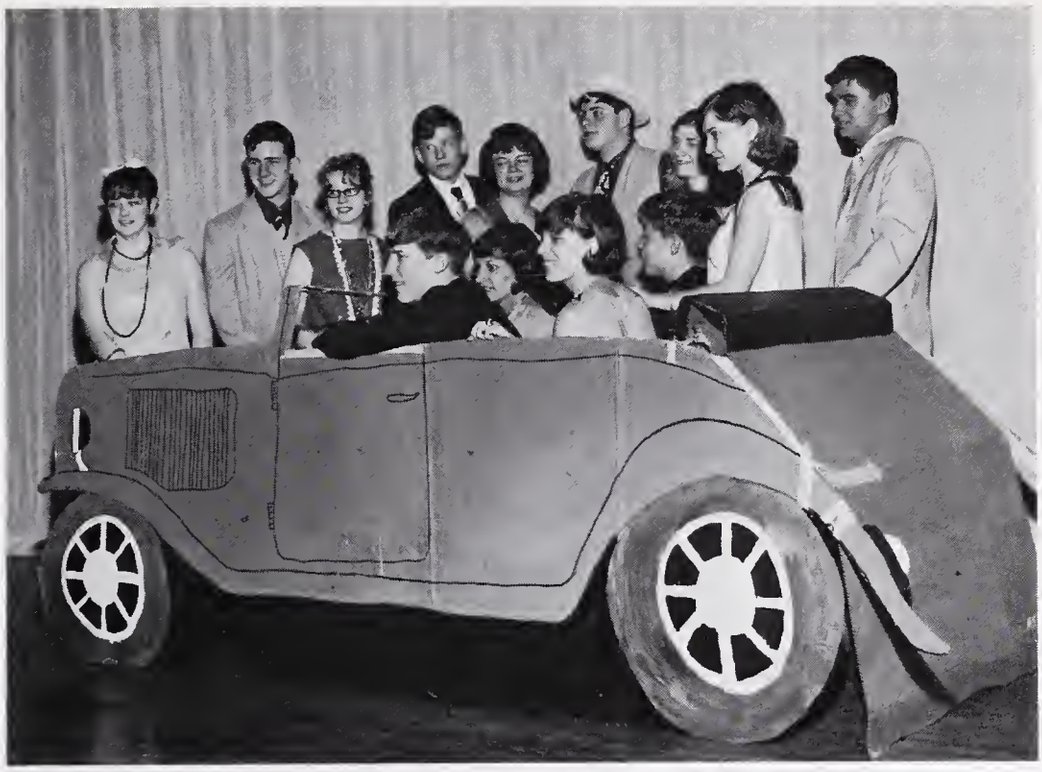
"Fanny"

"Fanny the Frivolous Flapper" was the musical comedy presented by the Thespian society this year.

The story concerned the discovery of the sale of stolen jewels under cover of an exclusive dress shop operated by Mlle. Suzette. "Biff" Bang, a detective, made an unusual model but solved the case.

Members of cast were Mlle. Suzette, Joyce Johnson; Fanny Fannington, Suzy Holtzman; "Biff" Bang, Bill Rathburn; Lotta Stile, Pat Bryan; Scarlette White, Marilyn McBride; Tot, Terri Haley; Dot, Joan Dygert; Will Chase, Steve Woodworth; Butch Ellis, Bob Hawthorne; Upson Downe, Phil Smathers; Chorus of Flappers and Their Boyfriends — Michelle Franze, Bob Crain, Jo Ann Schlosser, Larry May, Margie Burger, Dick Fee, Cynthia Braman, Dick Wilkie, Susan Austin; Models — Wendy McBride, Kathy Parsell, Linda Clancy, Nancy Wilder, Jan Thomas, Ginny Shoup; Band — Kathy Chadwick, Bill Bryan, Bill Wellman.

Mrs. Chokey was the director, assisted by Mrs. McKeever. Mickey Resler was the student director, and Mary Lou Sprinkle was the piano accompanist. Mr. Immel was the art director.



"They Put On A Play"

A one-act farcical comedy, "They Put On A Play," was the second production of the year for the Thespians, February 1 and 2.

The play, actually a play within a play, was presented to the student body in an attempt to arouse interest in the art of dramatics and the Thespian Club.

The comedy concerned a group of people putting on a play and capturing an escaped criminal.

The cast included Carol Ferris, Ann Richardson, Joyce Johnson, Carol Chokey, Sharon Snidle, Mike Parrish, Tom Chaudoin, Gil Rogers and Steve French.

Mrs. Owens directed this one-act play, assisted by Gloria Call, student teacher.

Pep Club

Our school spirit has been on the rise this year, and at the center of all the activity has been the pep club. This year the pep club has been following the away basketball games as well as those at home, and has given an extra boost to our Hornets. The awarding of a trophy to "Miss School Spirit", which began this year, and engraving class numerals on the pep brick, started last year, were used by the pep club to reward individual and class support. The favorite cheers of the pep club and team this year were "Hornets on the war path" and "Hornets, Hornets," to the tune of "Louie, Louie."

The pep club officers were: Joan Dygert president; Judy Mortorff, vice president; Anne Moore, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Grabill was the faculty sponsor.

Photography Club

The Photo Club is now in its sixth year as an organization in Angola High School. The purpose of the organization is to provide boys and girls interested in photography an opportunity to learn more about this work.

Equipment which club members may use includes a 35 mm Pantax camera, an enlarger, printing paper, and chemicals for use in developing pictures.

The main job of the Photo Club is the taking of pictures for the yearbook, the Key, and the Hornet, the school newspaper.

Mr. Montgomery is the adviser.

Publications

The Hornet

The Hornet, the newspaper of A. H. S., has maintained during the present year the same format adopted last year, with more pictures, more cartoons, and a new nameplate designed by Mr. Immel.

It was published once a month by the two journalism classes who write for it as a supplement to their text book work. Besides providing the students with news and features, the paper gave the journalism classes first hand experience in newspaper writing and editing. The paper was printed professionally.

In one class the position of editor was rotated while in the other class the editor and assistant remained the same. The business managers remained the same throughout the year.

The Hornet had a circulation of about 600; it was sold to students and in various locations in the city at 15 cents a copy.

The editors were Tony Culver, Ama Alleshouse, Jack Linn, Kathy Kolb, Jan Thomas, Marsha Tiffany, Marleen Wise, Doug Smith, Bonnie Tritch, Beverly Maier, Janet Kukutsis, and Mary Jane Hintz.

The business managers were Nancy Campbell, Jack Linn, and assistants, Andy Moore, Marleen Wise.

At the Fiesta

A Winning Float

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club has completed its third year as an organization in Angola High School. In these three years the club has informally adopted the "Spanish Club Fiesta" as the highlight of its yearly activities. Plans for "Fiesta Tijuana" this year were big and a number of money-making projects were carried out. The fiesta this year had the theme of a Spanish night club with a stage show and other features of holidays south of the border. These along with a banquet and a dance provided a very enjoyable evening for those attending.

Another highlight in Spanish Club activities is the initiation of new members, and a hilarious evening was enjoyed by both former members and those initiated.

In the fall of this school year the Spanish Club was privileged to have a first prize winning float in the "Hornets A Go Go" parade. This entry featured a colorful sombrero lying on a blanket of crep paper, a dancing Mexican hornet, and maraca players.

Meetings for the club are held the first Monday of every month and usually one evening of each month. During the Christmas season this year a program based on Christmas and New Year's Eve in Spanish speaking countries was presented by new members at one of the evening meetings. Other meetings featured local entertainment.

Officers this year were Bob Crain, president; Roger Call, vice-president; Marilyn Wild, secretary; and Kathy Kolb, treasurer. Jack Linn was fiesta chairman.

Senor Prosser is the sponsor.

Student Council

Since 1932 the Student Council has represented one of the most important fundamentals in our democratic way of life, that of self-government. Through this organization any student or faculty member may express his opinions, or give his suggestions, pertaining to the betterment of the school.

A fall festival, "Hornets A-Go-Go," was sponsored this year by the Council to maintain better school spirit.

Other Council accomplishments have included the completion of an Opinion Board, a contribution to the March of Dimes by selling bread, an amendment to the Council Constitution, and the presentation of awards to deserving scholars. The group also continued the paperback book sales in the upper hall.

Plans were made this year for the sponsoring of a foreign exchange student.

Varsity Football

Under the guidance of new head coach Bill Doba and assistant coach Jack Prosser, the Hornets raised last season's record of two wins and seven losses to a four and four record. After some tough early season setbacks, the entire Hornet squad proved that they had the desire to be a good football team by coming back in the second half of the season to beat their foes, topped by a season finale against a strong Decatur eleven in the first annual homecoming series.

The Hornets opened their campaign in the traditional Jamboree by playing Auburn to a 0-0 standstill in the opening period. They came back in the fourth quarter and yielded seven points to Garrett. Angola again failed to score. The visiting teams, Garrett and Auburn, were victorious over the home teams, Kendallville and Angola, 53-0. However, only seven of these points were yielded by the strong Hornet defense.

Angola launched their regular season with a victory over Columbia City on the opponents' field 14-0. Both touchdowns were scored on short plunges.

The Hornets tasted defeat for the first time, being edged by Auburn as time ran out. With three seconds remaining, Auburn tallied on a short pass play. The deadlock was broken when Auburn converted the placement. The final score was 7-6.

The gridders then journeyed to New Haven, losing to a strong Bulldog team 31-13. Angola led at intermission; however, New Haven came roaring back in the second half to post the triumph.

Angola next journeyed to Garrett, only to be defeated by a 27-0 score. The state-ranked Railroaders proved to be the superior team in this game.

Bluffton invaded Angola the following Friday. The visiting team squeaked out a 14-7 win in a thrilling contest. The home team had the lead at intermission but fell behind in the second half.

Eastside then met Angola in a game here in which the Hornet seniors were not permitted to play because of the newness of the sport to Eastside. The under-classmen dealt the visitors a sounding blow, defeating them by a 26-6 count.

The Hornets next travelled to Kendallville, beating the smaller Comets 31-13. Many of the Hornet players broke into the scoring column in this game.

The final game of the season climaxed a season of hard work. On the Hornets' field, Angola defeated Decatur 25-0. A combination of a strong defense and a capable offense provided the victory.

The eleven seniors on the squad and Coaches Doba and Prosser will have a good season to remember.

A Letter from the Editor

From the earliest stages of planning, to the taking of pictures, to the pasting of dummies, and finally to the last minute proof reading, this annual has been a product of confusion. The reason for this is a simple one; we wanted our book to be different from those of past years.

The first staff meetings in the fall were often vague and occasionally turned into mere social gatherings. We all knew though, that we wanted to break away from the traditional format of the Key annual. After a great deal of thought, we decided to add a new section to the book that would tell the story of the year in informal pictures.

Since we were so liberally changing the book's format, we decided also to break away from trite, worn-out, melodramatic themes such as students climbing stairs of knowledge to enter a big, new world. Instead, in conjunction with the new section we chose to show students in work and play. The remaining four sections of the Key still serve as a record of the events of the 1965-66 academic year.

The process of publishing a yearbook is certainly not an easy one. The first job is that of designing a cover. Then comes the seemingly never-ending task of planning what the book is to contain. Before pictures are taken, a list of what the editor wants must be given to the photographers. Early in the year subscriptions are sold. This year the class of '66 sold a record number of Keys making it necessary to order 880 books. All copy has to be written and edited. As pictures come in, they are sorted.

Approximately 33 per cent of those submitted are accepted for publication. A preliminary dummy is made, and the editor determines the size and crops for the pictures which are then sent to the engraving company. Ads are solicited from local merchants since the money brought in from subscriptions pays for only a fractional part of the book. So, as you can see, this annual is no little operation. The final layouts are made when the halftones come back from the engraving company, and the book is then sent to the printing company where still an infinite amount of work lies. Errors are corrected when the proofs are pulled. By this time little remains to do except hope that readers will like the book.

My thanks go to all the people who have contributed their time and talents to making this annual possible. I owe a special thank you to my parents who responded to my moods with patience and understanding.

In this Key we have tried to capture a way of life at Angola High School — a life of friendship and a life of scholarship. We realize that these years are filled with crazy phases and changing moods. We are told to live these years, our happiest, and yet work these years, so very important. In a nutshell that's what this book is all about. I sincerely thank you for allowing me to present it to you.
